

OCNA

Hall of Fame

Supporting Nomination

About the Award

The OCNA Hall of Fame recognizes and celebrates individuals who have made exemplary contributions to Ontario's community newspapers. Nominees are encouraged from all aspects of the community newspaper world, including but not limited to editorial, advertising, publishing, production, circulation, finance, sales or design. Inductees will be determined by a panel of judges selected by the OCNA Board of Directors.

Nomination Criteria

Nominees shall:

- have a proven record of outstanding achievements in the Ontario community newspaper industry
- have demonstrated leadership and/or innovation within the Ontario community newspaper industry
- have contributed to the overall health and success of community newspapers
- be well respected in the business and community
- be role models and inspirations for future generations of community newspaper leaders

Please note: Supporting Nomination Forms must be completed by at least two individuals other than the primary nominator.
